Juliana's classes provide an ideal exploratory training ground where children learn to be more self-aware, self-confident, relational, and expressive - physically, emotionally, and theatrically. Children grasp the elements of dance: time, space and energy through guided explorations and begin to experience their bodies as instruments. Through playful explorations students gain a mastery of movement and learn the artistry of bodily expression.

Juliana Monin took her first modern dance class at Shawl-Anderson Dance Center and is thrilled to be back in the Bay Area combining her love of children and dance. After graduating magna cum laude from Amherst College with a BA in psychology, she danced professionally in New York City, before leaving to teach yoga in Europe, Asia, and the South Pacific. In the Bay Area Juliana has performed professionally with Mo Miner and is currently dancing with Nina Haft & Company, Facing East Dance and Music, and Jessica Damon. She also is choreographing for the Berkeley Playhouse's upcoming production of Oliver.

SHAWL-ANDERSON DANCE CENTER provides Bay Area dance students of all ages and levels with high caliber training in both contemporary and traditional movement forms in a welcoming, non-competitive environment. The Center is a non-profit organization founded in 1958 by Frank Shawl and Victor Anderson and is committed to nurturing and mentoring the growth of dancers and choreographers; cultivating a healthy and supportive atmosphere for creative expression; sustaining traditions essential to excellence in the field; and, fostering the evolution of the art of dance.
